March 02, 2026: On Dealing with an Obsessive Compulsive Lunatic

I am personally witnessing that the Donald Trump team is being run in such a way as to demand that it insert itself into my affairs through every day and night that I continue to live my life in peace.

After witnessing Israel, with the help of the United States, conquer Palestine, and now as we watch the pair move on to conquer Iran, I am recording here that the same people that are carrying forward such aggressive actions in the Middle East are also maintaining an omnipresent influence over my own personal life - in my home while I work on my own private work, and before I post anything up to the worldwide web for public review.

This is an ongoing intrusion into my personal life, my personal work product, my personal thoughts, my personal sovereign and God-given life in this world.

We are witnessing a new level of violence and aggression in this world and it is being led by the United States of America and Donald Trump. The two forces have merged together to show themselves as an obsessive-compulsive, spying, murderer that is hell-bent on accomplishing their own personal goals despite anyone's objections.

Is there any force in the world that can stop them from exerting their will to do absolutely anything that they want?

Congress ultimately holds the reins (supposedly) over their own military and yet I have been writing to Congress for years now about this ongoing illegal intrusion into my personal home and I have received absolutely no results.

Dare I make a prediction that this week we will all watch as the ineffective government of the United States proves that it has absolutely no control over its own military as Congress stalls out while trying to curtail the 'War Powers' of Donald Trump?

Things do not look good for the world while America is under the leadership and guidance of the current team that exists in and out of the White House. Remember, all of this was also happening to my home while Joe Biden was President too! This is not a power that Donald gained once back in office. This is an ongoing abuse of American citizens whether he is the President or on the sidelines chomping at the bit to lead anyway.

I am writing all of this as a recording to document the personality of the force that continues to intrude itself into my home life using acoustic agitations as a means of communicating to me that 'it' is 'always watching' everything that I do and say in my own home - and for no good reason except that I am, in fact, the King of the World and they are hiding me.

The current military establishment and American government began this process of destroying our work product before this country ever existed in the first place. I have already documented that George Washington was a British spy working on behalf of Britain before and during the American Revolution. I have also documented how Benjamin Franklin and Marquis de Lafayette acted against the interests of the citizens of Louisiana to conquer it in their own interests for their forces instead of our own independent well-being.

I am continuing to document that We, the People, are being held as subjects to a Freemason conspiracy to hold down the most honorable people of America in order to 'raise hell' on earth. If you find my writings to be far-fetched, then you obviously have not been following along for the entire time that I have been producing this work product. These facts are documented now.

America is being held under a military coup de tat.

Prove me wrong, Congress. I challenge you to pass legislation this week to rein in your own military.

'Can't happen. Didn't happen. I'll pay them a million dollars if they can prove it." - J. Cheney Mason.
